Boston Chapter's NOVEMBER MEETING!

Thursday, November 16, 2006

Speaker: Sister Beatrice "Babs" Barry
"Love thy Neighbor – From Long Island to the Dominican Republic"

Bio: Born and educated on Long Island, New York, Sister Babs Barry entered the Sisters of Saint Joseph of Brentwood, New York, in 1953. Her first twenty-five years of ministry were spent in classrooms teaching or serving as an elementary school Principal. When the Diocese of Rockville Centre on Long Island responded to the Papal "Call to Action" in 1980, it sent two priests and two religious sisters to minister to the needs of the people in the Dominican Republic on the D.R.-Haitian border. Sister Babs was one of the two religious sisters who opened the mission. Seven years later, recognizing the need for a place for the sick who had no family near medical services in Santo Domingo, she founded the hospital house of hospitality, "The Inn of the Good Samaritan" where she remains as the Innkeeper.
